How Praiva will Helpful for You?

Before we discuss about how Praiva will helpful for Students, it's important to know what NET/JRF Examination is. And why the result is very low for NET/JRF Examination. National Eligibility Test (NET) examination is conducted to assess the eligibility of Indian nationals for the Assistant Professor or Junior Research Fellowship & Eligibility for Assistant Professor both in Indian universities and colleges. The candidates who qualify for the award of Junior Research Fellowship are eligible to pursue research in the subject of their post-graduation or in a related subject and are also eligible for Assistant Professor. The universities, institutions, IITs and other national organizations may select the JRF awardees for whole time research work in accordance with the procedure prescribed by them. UGC conducted the first ever National Eligibility Test (NET), common to both Eligibility for Lectureship and Junior Research Fellowship in December 1989. Since then it conducted twice every year, once each in June & December. Now from June -2015 CBSE Conducted NET Exam. As we all know NET/JRF Examination is a National Level Eligibility test. Students have to face three papers in this exam such as Paper-I, Paper-II, and Paper-III.

- What is Paper -I? How to prepare for this?

Paper -1 is usually held by UGC with aim to assess the teaching/research aptitude of the candidate. It will be designed to test the reasoning ability, comprehension, divergent thinking and general awareness of the candidate. In this section, 60 multiple choice questions of 2 marks each will be asked, out of which students would be required to answer any 50 questions.

These questions usually asked from the subject/topics given bellow.

- Teaching Aptitude
- Research Aptitude
- Data Interpretation
- Logical Reasoning
- Reading Comprehension
- General awareness

All the topics mention above are very important and students need to focus each and every topic. Read newspapers on daily basis for improve your general awareness.

- What is Paper – II and III? How to prepare for this?

Paper-II shall consist of 50 objective type compulsory questions and 75 objective type compulsory questions will ask in Paper-III. These questions are compulsory and students have to attempt all questions asked in Paper – II&III.

Paper –II and Paper – III totally based on Subject which was preferred by the candidate as per Master's or PG Degree. Theoretical concept is very important for this section because questions may be asked from wide topic which included in syllabus. So, students must go through the syllabus before taking up the exam. Regular mock test, at least once a week should part of the routine. With the help of mock test you will become familiar with questions and enhance reading speed, application etc. Praiva Education arranges their classes under the conditions described above for Paper – II & Paper – III. We focus on each and every things what would helpful for our students. Faculties are expert in their subjects, and our Faculties prepared a very unique study material by their research, which highly demanded by students who are appearing for UGC-NET/JRF Examination.
